The massive island of Cat Ba is a fantastic destination for ecotourism and adventure activities in Northern Vietnam. The island houses one of the most diverse national parks in Vietnam. Cat Ba National Park possesses 7 different ecosystems, both underwater and inland. The tropical forest here is also home to 32 types of mammals along with 70 bird species, some of which are listed in Vietnam's Red Book of endangered animals, including the golden-headed langur. There are also more than a thousand species of plants, hundreds of which can be used as medicines.

There are several different hiking and trekking routes through rugged and forested mountains within the national park. These routes are also divided by different levels of difficulty, so travellers don't have to be worried if their fitness is not very good. Apart from that, they can take a side visit to explore the exquisite Trung Trang Cave or discover ethnic village of Viet Hai.

Beside inland adventures, beach sports and activities are also many. You can go sailing and kayaking around 300 karst islands in Lan Ha Bay. The beach is perfect for swimming and scuba diving in many stretches of beaches here. At night, the fun does not stop when you can go camping by the sea with your family or friends.
